

Gov. Beshear Appoints Two to KLEC

Bill Sheckles

Gov. Steve Beshear appointed William "Bill" S. Sheckles to the Kentucky Law Enforcement Council to serve a term expiring July 1, 2015, effective July 2, 2011. Sheckles is the mayor of Bardstown and represents mayors on the council. The appointment replaces Darrell Gene Pickett, whose term expired.

John Cirigliano

Gov. Beshear reappointed John J. Cirigliano to the Council to serve for a term expiring July 1, 2014. Cirigliano, of Lexington, is an executive at Clearbrook & Co. Ltd. He represents citizens at large.

UK Police Wear Award-Winning Uniforms

The University of Kentucky Police Department uniform won the North-American Association of Uniform Manufacturers and Distributors 2011 Public Safety Uniform of the Year Award. The annual award is selected from an independent panel of judges on a variety of factors, such as: innovation and professional design, excellence and attractiveness, fabric enhancements and identifiable accessories that fit the departmental requirements.

5.11's new Patrol Duty Uniform is made of a washable poly-cotton twill that provides comfort, and the fabric is Teflon treated for stain and soil resistance.

Competition Shoot

The Department of Criminal Justice Training's 20th annual Competition Shoot will be conducted Saturday, Sept. 24 at the Boonesboro firing range. Registration begins at 9 a.m. and shooting starts at 11 a.m. The cost is $30 per participant. Registration forms are linked on DOCJT's website, at www.docjt.ky.gov, or by scanning this code with your smart phone.

For more information, contact Ben Wilcox at Ben.Wilcox@ky.gov or (859) 622-2308.

COURSE CHANGE

Criminalistics Academy Course Changes Session Length

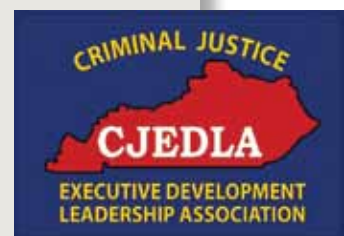

The once 10-week Kentucky Criminalistics Academy will be offered in two separate five-week courses beginning in April. This change will allow the Department of Criminal Justice Training to provide advanced forensic training to a broader law enforcement audience without sacrificing the quality of training. Officers can complete both courses and become graduates of the Kentucky Criminalistics Academy or complete the first five weeks and receive a Crime Scene Technician certificate.

For more information about KCA, please contact Joe Wallace at joseph.wallace@ky.gov or (859) 622-6485, or Larry Sennett at larry.sennett@ky.gov or (859) 622-8543.

New Law Enforcement Association Created

Graduates of the Criminal Justice Executive Development course have developed the Criminal Justice Executive Development Leadership Association. The association's mission is to advance the level of professional leadership among law enforcement executives, managers and supervisors across the Commonwealth of Kentucky through the sharing of information on leadership, training, legislation and crime prevention.

President	Rob Warfel	Frankfort PD	rwارفel@frankfort.ky.gov
1st VP	Lisa O'Hearn	Maysville PD	lohearn@maysvilleky.net
2nd VP	Amy Schworer	Park Hills PD	aschworer@parkhillspolice.com
3rd VP	David Gregory	Berea PD	dgregory@bereaky.gov
Treasurer	Jamey Gadzala	Ft. Thomas PD	jgadzala@ftthomas.org
Secretary	Todd Kelley	Ashland PD	ToddKelley@ashlandkydpd.org
Member At Large	Ken Hopkins	Frankfort PD	khopkins@frankfort.ky.gov